Warning and Advice to Catholics.

TORONTO, April 8.—Archbishop Lynch has issued a pastorial letter to the clergy of the arch-diocese, warning Catholics against extravagance at funerals in the shape of magnificent coffins and heaps of flowers shaped into ludicrous and unseemly designs. The letter also speaks of the enormity of turning the great day of grief and mourning, the anniversary of the death of Christ, into a day of pleasure and amusement, a day of theaters and horse racing and prize shooting. Catholics must not be led away by the sad example of people who are too often in ignorance of the meaning of the day—who know of Good Friday, this only, that it is a bank holiday.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Whitelaw Reid, of the New York Tribune, denies that he has written to Murat Halstead any such letter as that which a friend of Halstead's apparently violates confidence in his anxiety to get it mentioned in the New York Evening Post. The letter was alleged to state that Blaine was played out as a coudidate, and all hands must turn to nominating Sherman.

The total amount contributed during the past year for the erection of a monument to the late Vice-President Hendricks is $21,000. The sum required to erect the monument is $50,000, and it is thought that it can be raised during the next year.

FRIGHTFUL FIRE.

A New York Tenement House Burns and Its Victims are Dead and Dying.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The 200 residents of tenement house 12, Essex street, who were rendered homeless and thirteen of whom are in hospitals from burns received at the fire there last night, were given some relief to-day by a donation of $300, made by Moses Mehechbach, the pawnbroker and bank director.

The fire broke out in the cellar of a bakery below and spread through the building. If there had not been fire escapes in the front and rear the loss of life must have been appalling. Many of those taken to the Bellevue hopital last night were more frightened than hurt. Following is the hospital record:

Dead girl, ten years old, supposed to be Kate Schuman.

Mary Schuman, aged forty-four years.

Laura Schuman, thirteen years.

Billy Schuman, aged three years, burned about the face and hands, but not fatally.

Libia Krakoff, aged fifty-three years, badly burned, raving in delirium pain.

Jacob Crabow, thirteen years, back and legs badly burned.

Hannah Mropenski, forty years, face and hands burned.

Rudolph Mropenski, aged fourteen years, face and hands burned.

Rebecca Weiss, aged thirty-three years, face and hands burned.

Ida Weiss, aged fourteen yearn, not seriously burned.

Daisy Weiss, aged seventeen weeks, body badly burned.

Isaac Zimmerman, two years old, badly burned about the body and face.

Morris Rosenberg, aged twenty-three years, face and hands burned.

Ungnown girl about three years old, inhaled fire and is unconscious, will probably die.

The rest of the injured left the hospital after having their wounds dressed. Most of the injured are doing fairly well except the Crabow family, who are most of the time dilerious.

Five thousand dollars will probably cover the loss to property by fire and $2,000 will put the house in repair.

ELMIRA, N. Y., April 8.—Several buildings on the south side of Tuscorora street, the principal business street of Addison, were burned at midnight last night. Loss, from $40,000 to $50,000. G. J. Jennings, dry goods, is the heaviest loser, his loss being $17,500.

LUDINGTON, Mich., April 8.—The Boweland clothes pin factory belonging to Aldrich & Brayman, at Custer, burned last night. Loss, $20,000. Insurance, $9,000. This was the largest clothes pin factory in the world, and its average daily output was 150,000 pins. The mill will probably be rebuilt.

A SCHEMER.

Billy Kissane Burns a Steamer on Which He Had a Heavily Insured Cargo.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 8.—A special to the American from Gallatin, Tenn., says: "There is a man here whose father knew Billy Kissane to the tune of $10,000. Captain Samuel Lyon, the present owner and proprietor of the Gallatin flouring and saw mills, stated that his father, Hamilton Lyon, of the firm of Lyon & Bell, of Cincinnati, lost a large consignment of machinery valued at $10,000, on the ill-fated Martha Washington, which everybody believed Kissane burned at Helena, on the Mississippi river, near the mouth of White river. On the same vessel Kissane had a large cargo of boxes marked "valuable merchandise," which had been previously insured. When the remains of the burned vessel were raised some of these boxes contained nothing but rubbish, such as gravel, stones and sawdust. Mr. Hamilton Lyon is still living in Jackson county, Ky.

JUMBO!

The Damage Suit for Killing the Giant Elephant Set for Monday.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Shortly after the fatal railroad accident to Jumbo, in the fall of 1885, near Hamilton, Canada, Mr. P. T. The suit has remained on the calendar ever since on account of dimfuture. The veteran showman has got tired of waiting and his counsel, Ex-Judge William G. Choate, made a motion yesterday to have the case placed on the day calendar. The motion was granted and the case set down for trial next Monday, in part 3, of the supreme court circuits.

IT IS STRANGE.

No One Identifies the Girl Found Murdered by the Roadside at Rahway.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 8.—The body of the murdered girl is still undentified. Her face is rapidly decomposing and the undertaker says it will soon burst open on the right side, which was badly bruised.

Edward M. Hubbard has become a raving maniac brooding over the murder. Last night he left his home in East Rahway and ran screaming over the gardens and fields. JOE MASON.

He is Arrested on a Bench Warrant From Jasper County for Bohemian Oats Conspiracy.

Sheriff Nelson this morning received a personal letter from R. W. Marshal, state's attorney of Jasper county, enclosing a bench warrant for the arrest of Josephus Mason, of this county, on a charge of conspiracy. Mr. Mason is one of the best known citizens of the county, and his fine farm out on the Bluffton road is familiar to all who travel that way.

It seems that Mr. Mason went extensively into the Bohemian oats business, and reaping a nice harvest from the crop, he disposed of the surplus grain to persons in Jasper county and thereabouts, in a manner familiar to that peculiar traffic. He took the notes of his purchasers disposing of most of them to Mr. Geo. Esmond, of this city and others.

The suit is styled "State of Indiana vs. Josephus Mason" and it is supposed he is under indictment in Jasper county, at Rensselaer, where the court convened.

Sheriff Nelson this morning served the warrant and Mr. Mason at once proceeded to consult his attorney, Judge L. M. Ninde.

Fred Schaff, a farmer, who resides four miles west of town, came to the city at 4 o'clock this morning and swore out a warrant against George Arter, whom he alleged made an attempt to criminally assault his wife yesterday. Arter was brought in and given a hearing. He denied that he even touched the woman, having simply visited her house to employ her husband. There was prima facie evidence of blackmail, and Justice Ryon dismissed the case.

Sheriff Bratton, of Huntington, came here this morning with a prisoner whom he was taking to Findlay to answer the charge of bigamy. While Bratton was leisurely purchasing tickets for the great Ohio oil town, his prisoner quietly walked away. Bratton is a man sixty years of age and the prisoner is not a day younger. The old man was considerably worked up over his loss and eagerly sought the service of Sheriff Nelson to aid him in recapturing the bigamist.

The body is more susceptible to benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla now than at any other season. Therefore, take it now.

A Personal Tribute to the Late Judge Sinclair.

Postmaster Kaough yesterday received a letter from Dr. M. Pickett, of Corry, Pa., asking for information about the death of his friend, the late Judge S. E. Sinclair. He adds:

He and myself were students together in the village of Sinclairville, N. Y., nineteen or twenty years ago. I was in Dr. Harrison's office and he was in the Hon. Obert Edson's office. We were personal friends and the last time I ever saw him he visited me when I was assistant surgeon in the Sisters' Charity hospital in Buffalo, N. Y. He was just returning from the Albany law school, where he graduated. For a few years we corresponded, but we never have met since the spring of '68 or '69. I had intended to visit him this summer, but alas! I have waited too long, and I am very sorry. He was a bright student and I presume he made his mark in his profession. His death will be felt by your citizens as well as his friends, and it will be a great loss to the community he lived and moved in.

Yours respectfully,
M. PICKETT.

P. S. GILMORE.

A Few Events in the Career of the Greatest Band Leader in the World.

Of course everbody knows all about Gilmore or effect to know him, in view of his coming. But it may be well to recall a few of the leading incidents in his metoric career since the organization of his band in Boston in 1858, his removal to New York in 1873, and his appearance at the present time at the head of the greatest military band on earth. They are as follows:

Patrick S. Gilmore was leader of the "Boston Brigade Band," the "Suffolk Band of Boston," and the celebrated "Salem Band," previous to the organization of his own band in 1858. His band was present at the inauguration of Presidents Pierce, Buchanan, Lincoln and others, and at most of the great political conventions, including the last democratic convention, held in Charleston, S. C., before the war, which broke up after several days, without making a nomination. As the convention adjourned angry calls were made upon the band to strike up a war hymn, "Give us the Marsellaise," shouted a stentorian voice, to which Gilmore responded by striking up "The Star-Spangled Banner," alternating it with "Hail Columbia" and "Yankee Doodle," until the last man had left the hall.

He entered the army at the head of his band and went with Burnside into the Carolinas. General N. B. Banks placed Gilmore in charge of all bands and music in the department of the gulf during the war, and on the 4th day of March, 1864, at the inauguration of Michael Hahn as governor of freed and restored Louisiana, Gilmore gave a grand national concert on Lafayette square, New Orleans, in connection with the imposing inaugural ceremonies. Ten thousand children in the chorus and thirty-six pieces of artillery assisted him.

He next gave the Boston Jubilee concerts in 1869 and 1872, with 30,000 singers and 2,500 musicians.

He gave 600 concerts in Gilmore's Garden, New York, under the Twenty-third regiment band.

He visited the Pacific Coast and afterward furnished music for the American Independence anniversary at Philadelphia.

Then followed his triumphal tour of Europe, visiting England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. After his return he sent $6,000 to the Parnell fund, and before that gave $3,000 to the sanitary fund during the war of the rebellion.

The News at Wabash, Ind.

WABASH, April 8.—Sherift Bossler Walter, of this city, has purchased a patent table slide and the extensive machinery used in its manufacture from a gentleman in Huntington, and is now removing the establishment to this city. The concern will occupy a portion of L. Bruner's hub and spoke factory and will begin operations next week.

The Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan Railroad company has just effected a reduction of all local fares to three cents per mile. The action was not compulsory, the line having a ninety-nine-year charter, permitting it to collect four cents per mile. The reduction takes effect at once.

The contractors who are putting in the system of water works here will be compelled to take up and re-lay about 1,000 feet of mains, which were not placed at the depth of five feet, as required by the terms of the contract. Work is being pushed rapidly by the company. Six miles of mains have already been laid and the remaining five miles are going down at the rate of 1,000 feet per day. The pumping machinery is in place and the stand pipe will arrive this month. The works will be completed for testing not later than August 1 next.

Defending Miller, the Peru Murderer.

PERU, Ind., 8.—The funeral of Charles Emerick, the murdered man, took place at 10 o'clock this morning. The court adjourned and the entire bar participated, with a large concourse of citizens. Mrs. Emerick is in a deplorable condition, and she has the entire sympathy of the community.

Hon. Lyman, Walker, formerly judge of the twenty-seventh judicial circuit, has been engaged as counsel to defend Miller. Judge Walker stated to the Sentinel correspondent that there would be no difficulty in securing an acquittal for Miller, as there was no intent whatever on his part to kill Emerick, but merely to give him a sound drubbing. Miller was armed at the time and had he sought the life of his victim could have shot him. This is the line of defense already mapped out. A change of venue will probably be taken from Miami county.

A MEZZO TINT.

There came to my vision, one winter's day—
At the twilight hour, so still and cold—
This bit of color, which seemed to gleam
Like an angel's wing o'er the frosty wold.

Twas the face of a girl, with health a-glow
In each dainty curve of cheek and chin;
While out of her eyes there danced a light,
That told of a quenchless flame within.

And into her eyes there looked a youth
Whose heart was as true and pure as gold;
As, clasping her hands in rev'rence wise,
He told her a story new, yet old.

Then up to her temples flashed the light
Of sudden pulse beats' rapturous glow,
And the answer that breathed through her maiden lips
Was his holiest Psalm of Life, I know.

And so this color, of rarer tint
Than ever a painter's canvas caught,
Was silently wafted from love's warm zone,
And into the gray of the twilight wrought.
—Anna C. Starbuck.

The Quaker "Thou."

When the novelists of the last century had occasion to introduce a Quaker into their fictions they took care to mark him well by overlaying his speech with "thee and thou," and, indeed, at one time this phrase was a common slang term for the Friends. The use of these pronouns is partially a survival of the time when the lower orders employed them habitually and is a curious instance of the correctness of phrase surviving among the very persons who, next to pedants and scientists, are currently credited with being the corrupters of the language, while the educated had fallen into grammatical incorrectness. The Quaker writers affirm, however, that the use of "you" instead of the "thou" of the grammars originally rose from a desire to compliment the person addressed by ascribing to him the importance belonging to two or more, and wrote many tractates in support of their view. Be this as it may, it is indisputable that technical correctness was on their side, and sovereign and newspaper editor are alike incorrect when they use the imposing "we" in place of the plebeian "I". To say "thou" (pro forma) to a man was, it will be remembered, in the reigns of Elizabeth and James I, simply to insult him. "I thou thee, thou taitor," cried Coke to Raleigh when the latter was being tried for his life.—London Society.

A Nephew of Ralph Waldo.

Charles Emerson, nephew of Ralph Waldo, married a beautiful Bohemian abroad, and probably would never have returned to reside in America if his wife had not met her husband's uncle. "For two years," she said, "we lived alone on the side of a mountain in Switzerland. One day I heard of a famous uncle of my husband's and I wanted to see him. We went to Paris where he was staying, and he was so kind, so polite, so good, I wanted to go to his country, and we came."—New York Sun.

France's Little Gunboat.

France revels in a diminutive gunboat which has been flying around experimentally near Toulon, cutting through the water at the rate of nineteen knots, with a gun out of all proportion in size. The inventor's proud boast is that the boat is too small for big ships to tackle, while its cannon is big enough to smash things.—Chicago Tribune.

Cannon ball and bomb shell relics of the war of 1812 have become scarce and are much sought for by antiquarians, and yet probably there are a great many of them to be had in the marshes around the village "if a feller only knew where to dig." It is stated that the year after the attack by Commodore Hardy in 1814 several tons were collected and sold to an old ironmonger who came here in a vessel.—Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin.

Gen. Grant's Last Letter.

Col. John S. Mosby has in his possession the last letter of Gen. Grant. It was dictated the day before Gen. Grant died and was addressed to Gov. Stanford, asking his influence to secure Col. Mosby a position in California which would help him enter on the practice of law. This letter was the means of obtaining an appointment as counsel for the Southern Pacific railroad, which Mosby still holds.—Chicago Tribune.

It is a Curious Fact

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine tan at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite and giving a healthy to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

The Seven Cuticura Boys

These seven beautiful boys owe their beauty of skin, luxuriance of hair, purity of blood, and freedom from hereditary taint or humors to the celebrated Cuticura Remedies.

Thousands of children are born into the world every day with some eczematous affection, such as milk crust, scall head, scuff or dandruff, sure to develop into an agonizing eczema, the itching, burning and disfiguration of which make life a prolonged torture unless properly treated.

A warm bath with Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, and a single application of Cuticura, the great skin cure, with a little Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, is often sufficient to arrest the progress of the disease and point to a speedy and permanent cure.

Your most valuable Cuticura Remedies have done my child so much good that I feel like saying this for the benefit of those who are troubled with skin disease. My little girl was troubled with eczema, and I tried several doctors and medicines, but did not do her any good until I used the Cuticura Remedies, which speedily cured her, for which I owe you many thanks and many nights of rest.
ANTON BOSSMIER, Edinburgh, Ind.

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old, was attacked with a virulent, malignant disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to bi knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the Cuticura Remedies. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred. GEO. B. SMITH,
Att'y at law and ex-pros. att'y, Ashland O.
Reference: J. G. Weist, druggist, Ashland, O.

One year ago the Cuticura and Soap cured a little girl in our house of the worst sore head we ever saw, and the Resolvent and Cuticura are now curing a young gentleman of a sore leg, while the physicians are trying to have it amputated. It will save his leg.
S. B. SMITH & BRO., Covington, Ky.

Copies of the new and beautiful song, "Remembrance," can now be obtained at the music store of Dawson & Karn, 80 Calhoun street.

SOME grocers are so short sighted as to decline to keep the "IVORY SOAP," claiming it does not pay as much profit as inferior qualities do, so if your regular grocer refuses to get it for you, there are undoubtedly others who recognize the fact that the increased volume of business done by reason of keeping the best articles more than compensates for the smaller profit, and will take pleasure in getting it for you.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

FINE WELL MADE GARMENTS

Fit better than poor, shabbily constructed goods. This rule holds goods in

Boys' and Children's Clothing !

AS WELL AS MEN'S.

The cost of the material is the same if the garment is well or poorly made, so the little saved in the labor of constructing the garment is more than off-set by the difference of the service wear it renders.

We offer a superior class of READY MADE CLOTHING for the wear of Men, Boys or Children and they must not be confounded with goods often represented as such. The many customers who have used our clothing testify to the fact that no other concern in this city offers anything in comparison, and yet, for all that, our prices are no higher than asked for inferior goods. When we offer a child's suit for $3, $4 or $5 we know what is required of it and we feel safe in allowing it to be put to the test of "knocks." Same holds good in our working clothes for men. Even a pair of Jeans pants for $1 will stand service. If you have never been in our store, step in some day and look. Buying may be an after consideration.

Warning and Advice to Catholics.

TORONTO, April 8.—Archbishop Lynch has issued a pastorial letter to the clergy of the arch-diocese, warning Catholics against extravagance at funerals in the shape of magnificent coffins and hoops of flowers shaped into ludicrous and unseemly designs. The letter also speaks of the enormity of turning the great day of grief and mourning, the anniversary of the death of Christ, into a day of pleasure and amusement, a day of theaters and horse racing and prize shooting. Catholics must not be led away by the sad example of people who are too often in ignorance of the meaning of the day—who know of Good Friday, this only, that it is a bank holiday.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Whitelaw Reid, of the New York Tribune, denies that he has written to Murat Halstead any such letter as that which a friend of Halstead's apparently violates confidence in his anxiety to get it mentioned in the New York Evening Post. The letter was alleged to state that Blaine was played out as a candidate, and all hands must turn to nominating Sherman.

The total amount contributed during the past year for the erection of a monument to the late Vice-President Hendricks is $21,000. The sum required to erect the monument is $50,000, and it is thought that it can be raised during the next year.

FRIGHTFUL FIRE.

A New York Tenement House Burns and Its Victims are Dead and Dying.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The 200 residents of tenement house 12, Essex street, who were rendered homeless and thirteen of whom are in hospitals from burns received at the fire there last night, were given some relief to-day by a donation of $300, made by Moses Mehealbach, the pawnbroker and bank director.

The fire broke out in the cellar of a bakery below and spread through the building. If there had not been fire escapes in the front and rear the loss of life must have been appalling. Many of those taken to the Bellevue hospital last night were more frightened than hurt. Following is the hospital record:

Dead girl, ten years old, supposed to be Kate Schuman.

Mary Schuman, aged forty-four years.

Laura Schuman, thirteen years.

Billy Schuman, aged three years, burned about the face and hands, but not fatally.

Libia Krahoff, aged fifty-three years, badly burned, raving in delirium pain.

Jacob Crabow, thirteen years, back and legs badly burned.

Hannah Mropenski, forty years, face and hands burned.

Rudolph Mropenski, aged fourteen years, face and hands burned.

Rebecca Weiss, aged thirty-three years, face and hands burned.

Ida Weiss, aged fourteen years, not seriously burned.

Daisy Weiss, aged seventeen weeks, body badly burned.

Isaac Zimmerman, two years old, badly burned about the body and face.

Morris Rosenburg, aged twenty-three years, face and hands burned.

Unknown girl about three years old, inhaled fire and is unconscious, will probably die.

The rest of the injured left the hospital after having their wounds dressed. Most of the injured are doing fairly well except the Crabow family, who are most of the time delirious.

Five thousand dollars will probably cover the loss to property by fire and $2,000 will put the house in repair.

ELMIRA, N. Y., April 8.—Several buildings on the south side of Tuscorora street, the principal business street of Addison, were burned at midnight last night. Loss, from $40,000 to $50,000, G. J. Jennings, dry goods, is the heaviest loser, his loss being $17,500.

LUDINGTON, Mich., April 8.—The Bowland clothes pin factory belonging to Aldrich & Brayman, at Custer, burned last night. Loss, $20,000. Insurance, $8,000. This was the largest clothes pin factory in the world, and its average daily output was 150,000 pins. The mill will probably be rebuilt.

A SCHEMER.

Billy Kissane Burns a Steamer on Which He Had a Heavily Insured Cargo.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 8.—A special to the American from Gallatin, Tenn., says: "There is a man here whose father knew Billy Kissane to the tune of $10,000. Captain Samuel Lyon, the present owner and proprietor of the Gallatin flooring and saw mills, stated that his father, Hamilton Lyon, of the firm of Lyon & Bell, of Cincinnati, lost a large consignment of machinery valued at $10,000, on the ill-fated Martha Washington, which everybody believed Kissane burned at Helena, on the Mississippi river, near the mouth of White river. On the same vessel Kissane had a large cargo of boxes marked "valuable merchandise," which had been previously insured. When the remains of the burned vessel were raised some of these boxes contained nothing but rubbish, such as gravel, stones and sawdust. Mr. Hamilton Lyon is still living in Jackson county, Ky.

JUMBO!

The Damage Suit for Killing the Giant Elephant Set for Monday.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Shortly after the fatal railroad accident to Jumbo, in the fall of 1885, near Hamilton, Canada, Mr. P. T. Barnum brought suit in the supreme court against the Grand Trunk Railroad company, claiming $100,000 damages on account of the giant elephant's death. The suit has remained on the calendar ever since on account of dimfuture. The veteran showman has got tired of waiting and his counsel, Ex-Judge William G. Choate, made a motion yesterday to have the case placed on the day calendar. The motion was granted and the case sat down for trial next Monday, in part 3, of the supreme court circuits.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Haytian's Threaten to Massacre all Europeans in That Country.

PARIS, April 8.—The government has ordered the man-of-war, now in the West Indian waters, to proceed immediately to Port-au-Prince to protect the Europeans there, in view of the threatened massacre by the Haytians, in the event of their government complying with the demands of Great Britain on account of some old claims. Advices received by the Haytian legation in Paris from Port-au-Prince say the Haytians are much excited over Great Britains demand, but deny they have treatened to massacre foreigners.

A state of almost unexampled thranny exists in Alsace-Lorraine. Most honorable citizens are arrested without apparent cause, dragged through the streets like common thieves, and immured in some fortress during the pleasure of their rulers. The bare fact of having worn, or purchased articles of dress whose colors recall the French flag or subscribing to a disaffected paper, is considered a crime, and the offender is punished with several months' imprisonment.

IT IS STRANGE.

No One Identifies the Girl Found Murdered by the Roadside at Rahway.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 8.—The body of the murdered girl is still unidentified. Her face is rapidly decomposing and the undertaker says it will soon burst open on the right side, which was badly bruised.

Edward M. Hubbard has become a raving maniac brooding over the murder. Last night he left his home in East Rahway and ran screaming over the garden and fields. At 4 this morning he began shouting murder near the mayor's house, on Main street, when Assistant Chief of Police Conger arrested him and locked him up in a cell at headquarters.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The German barber Floth, who was arrested in Brooklyn on suspicion of being concered in the Rahway murder, was arraigned before police justice to-day and discharged for want of evidence.

Measles.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 8.—There has been an epidemic of measles at the deaf and dumb institute. Seventy-five pupils have had the disease. It has now abated. All the patients having it are doing well with a single exception. Pneumonia followed the measles in this case—a girl—and unfavorable results are feared. There is still hope.

Observing Good Friday.

NEW YORK, April 8.—To-day being Good Friday all down town exchanges are closed as were also bankers and brokers offices which gave Wall street quite a deserted appearance. The state and United States courts closed and also all city departments that were not required by law to be open.

The Magnetic Statesman Reported Ill Out in the Indian Territory.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 8.—A private telegram has been received in this city from Ft. Gibson, Indian territory, stating that Mr. Blaine has a severe cold and is threatened with pneumonia. No particulars have yet been received. A dispatch was sent to Col. Coppinger, the commander of the post and a son-in-law of Mr. Blaine, asking for the facts and they will be reported as soon as received.

Later—Mr. R. O. Kerns, a personal friend of Mr. Blaine, accompanied by Dr. H. B. Mudd, a prominent physician of this city, left here at 1 p. m. by special train for Fort Gibson.

None of the circumstances leading to Blaine's illness are yet known here, but particulars are expected and will be reported instantly on receipt.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary societies of Fort Wayne Presbytery, began its session Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church, at Kendallville, and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer by the president. Fiftyfive delegates from abroad were in attendance.

Mrs. N. Teal welcomed the visitors and Mrs. Sessions, of Huntington, replied. Mrs. D B. Wells, of this city, delivered the annual address, and was followed by other ladies prominent in the work.

Mrs. J. D. Keller, of Fort Wayne, presented a paper, showing very clearly that the work of missions more than pays in a commercial and monetary point of view.

Miss Sharpe, of the Westminster female seminary, of Fort Wayne, gave a rapid sketch of history from early times, showing the pointing of prophecy and providence towards the establishment and final triumph of the church of God in the earth.

The treasurer's report was then read by Mrs. R. S. Goodman, showing that $1,104 have been contributed during the last year. The meeting was a delightful one throughout. The pulpit was beautifully decorated with flowers. On the wall on one side of it in large letters were the words: "Christ for all the world." On the other, "All the world for Christ."

JOE MASON.

He Is Arrested on a Bench Warrant From Jasper County for Bohemian Oats Conspiracy.

Sheriff Nelson this morning received a personal letter from R. W. Marshal, state's attorney of Jasper county, enclosing a bench warrant for the arrest of Josephus Mason, of this county, on a charge of conspiracy. Mr. Mason is one of the best known citizens of the county, and his fine farm out on the Bluffton road is familiar to all who travel that way.

It seems that Mr. Mason went extensively into the Bohemian oats business, and reaping a nice harvest from the crop, he disposed of the surplus grain to persons in Jasper county and thereabouts, in a manner familiar to that peculiar traffic. He took the notes of his purchasers disposing of most of them to Mr. Geo. Esmond, of this city and others.

The suit is styled "State of Indiana vs. Josephus Mason" and it is supposed he is under indictment in Jasper county, at Rensselaer, where the court convened.

Sheriff Nelson this morning served the warrant and Mr. Mason at once proceeded to consult his attorney, Judge L. M. Nindo.

A Personal Tribute to the Late Judge Sinclair.

Postmaster Keough yesterday received a letter from Dr. M. Pickett, of Corry, Pa., asking for information about the death of his friend, the late Judge S. E. Sinclair. He adds:

He and myself were students together in the village of Sinclairville, N. Y., nineteen or twenty years ago. I was in Dr. Harrison's office and he was in the Hon. Obert Edson's office. We were personal friends and the last time I ever saw him he visited me when I was assistant surgeon in the Sisters' Charity hospital in Buffalo, N. Y. He was just returning from the Albany law school, where he graduated. For a few years we corresponded, but we never have met since the spring of '68 or '69. I had intended to visit him this summer, but alas! I have waited too long, and I am very sorry. He was a bright student and I presume he made his mark in his profession. His death will be felt by your citizens as well as his friends, and it will be a great loss to the community he lived and moved in,

Yours respectfully,
M. PICKETT.

P. S. GILMORE.

A Few Events in the Career of the Greatest Band Leader in the World.

Of course everbody knows all about Gilmore or effect to know him, in view of his coming. But it may be well to recall a few of the leading incidents in his meteoric career since the organization of his band in Boston in 1858, his removal to New York in 1873, and his appearance at the present time at the head of the greatest military band on earth. They are as follows:

Patrick S. Gilmore was leader of the "Boston Brigade Band," the "Suffolk Band of Boston," and the celebrated "Salem Band," previous to the organization of his own band in 1858. His band was present at the inauguration of Presidents Pierce, Buchanan, Lincoln and others, and at most of the great political conventions, including the last democratic convention, held in Charleston, S. C., before the war, which broke up after several days, without making a nomination. As the convention adjourned angry calls were made upon the band to strike up a war hymn, "Give us the Marseillaise," shouted a stentorian voice, to which Gilmore responded by striking up "The Star-Spangled Banner," alternating it with "Hail Columbia" and "Yankee Doodle," until the last man had left the hall.

He entered the army at the head of his band and went with Burnside into the Carolinas. General N. B. Banks placed Gilmore in charge of all bands and music in the department of the gulf during the war, and on the 4th day of March, 1864, at the inauguration of Michael Hahn as governor of freed and restored Louisiana, Gilmore gave a grand national concert on Lafayette square, New Orleans, in connection with the imposing inaugural ceremonies. Ten thousand children in the chorus and thirty-six pieces of artillery assisted him.

He next gave the Boston Jubilee concerts in 1869 and 1872, with 30,000 singers and 2,500 musicians.

He gave 600 concerts in Gilmore's Garden, New York, under the Twenty-third regiment band.

He visited the Pacific Coast and afterward furnished music for the American Independence anniversary at Philadelphia.

Then followed his triumphal tour of Europe, visiting England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. After his return he sent $6,000 to the Parnell fund, and before that gave $3,000 to the sanitary fund during the war of the rebellion.

The News at Wabash, Ind.

WABASH, April 8.—Sheriff Bossler Walter, of this city, has purchased a patent table slide and the extensive machinery used in its manufacture from a gentleman in Huntington, and is now removing the establishment to this city. The concern will occupy a portion of L. Brauer's hub and spoke factory and will begin operations next week.

The Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan Railroad company has just effected a reduction of all local fares to three cents per mile. The action was not compulsory, the line having a ninety-nine-year charter, permitting it to collect four cents per mile. The reduction takes effect at once.

The contractors who are putting in the system of water works here will be compelled to take up and re-lay about 1,000 feet of mains, which were not placed at the depth of five feet, as required by the terms of the contract. Work is being pushed rapidly by the company. Six miles of mains have already been laid and the remaining five miles are going down at the rate of 1,000 feet per day. The pumping machinery is in place and the stand pipe will arrive this month. The works will be completed for testing not later than August 1 next.

Defending Miller, the Peru Murderer.

PERU, Ind., 8.—The funeral of Charles Emerick, the murdered man, took place at 10 o'clock this morning. The court adjourned and the entire bar participated, with a large concourse of citizens. Mrs. Emerick is in a deplorable condition, and she has the entire sympathy of the community.

Hon. Lyman, Walker, formerly judge of the twenty-seventh judicial circuit, has been engaged as counsel to defend Miller. Judge Walker stated to the Sentinel correspondent that there would be no difficulty in securing an acquittal for Miller, as there was no intent whatever on his part to kill Emerick, but merely to give him a sound drubbing. Miller was armed at the time and had he sought the life of his victim could have shot him. This is the line of defense already mapped out. A change of venue will probably be taken from Miami county.

Remember that next Saturday is the day for Centlivre's Bock beer. Inquire for it. 7-2t

A MEZZO TINT.

There came to my vision, one winter's day—
At the twilight hour, so still and cold
This bit of color, which seemed to gleam
Like an angel's wing o'er the frosty wold.

'Twas the face of a girl, with health a-glow
In each dainty curve of cheek and chin;
While out of her eyes there danced a light,
That told of a quenchless flame within.

And into her eyes there looked a youth
Whose heart was as true and pure as gold;
As, clasping her hands in rev'rence wise,
He told her a story new, yet old.

Then up to her temples flashed the light
Of sudden pulse beats' rapturous glow,
And the answer that breathed through her maiden lips
Was his holiest Psalm of Life, I know.

And so this color, of rarer tint
Than ever a painter's canvas caught,
Was silently wafted from love's warm zone,
And into the gray of the twilight wrought.
—Anna C. Starbuck.

The Quaker "Thou."

When the novelists of the last century had occasion to introduce a Quaker into their fictions they took care to mark him well by overlaying his speech with "thee and thou," and, indeed, at one time this phrase was a common slang term for the Friends. The use of these pronouns is partially a survival of the time when the lower orders employed them habitually and is a curious instance of the correctness of phrase surviving among the very persons who, next to pedants and scientists, are currently credited with being the corrupters of the language, while the educated had fallen into grammatical incorrectness. The Quaker writers affirm, however, that the use of "you" instead of the "thou" of the grammars originally rose from a desire to compliment the person addressed by ascribing to him the importance belonging to two or more, and wrote many tractates in support of their view. Be this as it may, it is indisputable that technical correctness was on their side, and sovereign and newspaper editor are alike incorrect when they use the imposing "we" in place of the plebeian "I". To say "thou" (pro forma) to a man was, it will be remembered, in the reigns of Elizabeth and James I, simply to insult him. "I thou thee, thou traitor," cried Coke to Raleigh when the latter was being tried for his life.—London Society.

A Nephew of Ralph Waldo.

Charles Emerson, nephew of Ralph Waldo, married a beautiful Bohemian abroad, and probably would never have returned to reside in America if his wife had not met her husband's uncle. "For two years," she said, "we lived alone on the side of a mountain in Switzerland. One day I heard of a famous uncle of my husband's and I wanted to see him. We went to Paris where he was staying, and he was so kind, so polite, so good, I wanted to go to his country, and we came."—New York Sun.

France's Little Gunboat.

France revels in a diminutive gunboat which has been flying around experimentally near Toulon, cutting through the water at the rate of nineteen knots, with a gun out of all proportion in size. The inventor's proud boast is that the boat is too small for big ships to tackle, while its cannon is big enough to smash things.—Chicago Tribune.

Cannon ball and bomb shell relics of the war of 1812 have become scarce and are much sought for by antiquarians, and yet probably there are a great many of them to be had in the marshes around the village "if a feller only knew where to dig." It is stated that the year after the attack by Commodore Hardy in 1814 several tons were collected and sold to an old ironmonger who came here in a vessel.—Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin.

Gen. Grant's Last Letter.

Col. John S. Mosby has in his possession the last letter of Gen. Grant. It was dictated the day before Gen. Grant died and was addressed to Gov. Stanford, asking his influence to secure Col. Mosby a position in California which would help him enter on the practice of law. This letter was the means of obtaining an appointment as counsel for the Southern Pacific railroad, which Mosby still holds.—Chicago Tribune.

The Seven Cuticura Boys

These seven beautiful boys owe their beauty of skin, luxuriance of hair, purity of blood, and freedom from hereditary taint or humors to the celebrated Cuticura Remedies.

Thousands of children are born into the world every day with some eczematous affection, such as milk crust, scall head, scurf or dandruff, sure to develop into an agonizing eczema, the itching, burning and disfiguration of which make life a prolonged torture unless properly treated.

A warm bath with Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, and a single application of Cuticura, the great skin cure, with a little Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, is often sufficient to arrest the progress of the disease and point to a speedy and permanent cure.

Your most valuable Cuticura Remedies have done my child so much good that I feel like saying this for the benefit of those who are troubled with skin disease. My little girl was troubled with eczema, and I tried several doctors and medicines, but did not do her any good until I used the Cuticura Remedies, which speedily cured her, for which I owe you many thanks and many nights of rest.
ANTON BOSSMIER, Edinburgh, Ind.

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old, was attacked with a virulent, malignant disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the Cuticura Remedies. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and today he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred. GEO. B. SMITH,
Att'y at law and ex-pros. att'y, Ashland O.
Reference: J. G. Weist, druggist, Ashland, O.

One year ago the Cuticura and Soap cured a little girl in our house of the worst sore head we ever saw, and the Resolvent and Cuticura are now curing a young gentleman of a sore leg, while the physicians are trying to have it amputated. It will save his leg.

Centlivre will put on sale next Saturday the finest quality of Bock beer ever seen in Fort Wayne. 7-2t

Copies of the new and beautiful song, "Remembrance," can now be obtained at the music store of Dawson & Karn, 80 Calhoun street.

SOME grocers are so short sighted as to decline to keep the "IVORY SOAP," claiming it does not pay as much profit as inferior qualities do, so if your regular grocer refuses to get it for you, there are undoubtedly others who recognize the fact that the increased volume of business done by reason of keeping the best articles more than compensates for the smaller profit, and will take pleasure in getting it for you.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'!" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

FINE WELL MADE GARMENTS

Fit better than poor, shabbily constructed goods. This rule holds goods in

Boys' and Children's Clothing !

AS WELL AS MEN'S.

The cost of the material is the same if the garment is well or poorly made, so the little saved in the labor of constructing the garment is more than off-set by the difference of the service wear it renders.

We offer a superior class of READY MADE CLOTHING for the wear of Men, Boys or Children and they must not be confounded with goods often represented as such. The many customers who have used our clothing testify to the fact that no other concern in this city offers anything in comparison, and yet, for all that, our prices are no higher than asked for inferior goods. When we offer a child's suit for $3, $4 or $5 we know what is required of it and we feel safe in allowing it to be put to the test of "knocks." Same holds good in our working clothes for men. Even a pair of Jeans pants for $1 will stand service. If you have never been in our store, step in some day and look. Buying may be an after consideration.
